Damien Center Announces New Hire

INDIANAPOLIS (March 8, 2021) – The Damien Center has hired Dexter Etter as director of STD/HIV prevention. He previously worked at the Indiana State Department of Health in the HIV/STD/Viral Hepatitis division where he led statewide quality improvement and health equity efforts.

He graduated from Indiana University with a master's degree in Social Work.

About Damien Center:

Damien Center is Indiana's oldest and largest AIDS service organization and leads the effort to prevent the spread of HIV. The Center opened in 1987 and offers a one-stop-shop model of care that includes preventive, supportive, and medical services that empowers people in Central Indiana affected by HIV/AIDS to move forward each day with dignity so they may live abundant and productive lives. Damien Center believes passionately in the dignity and worth of every person who seeks their services and strives to be a safe and welcoming place so that no barriers separate people from the services they need to prolong and enhance their lives. For more information visit: <http://www.damien.org> or follow them on Twitter at @DamienCenter or like them on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/thedamiencenter/>
