Damien Center Promotes Taylor Smith to Director

INDIANAPOLIS (May 20, 2021) – The Damien Center has promoted Taylor Smith to director of support services. She has worked at the Damien Center since 2016, most recently serving as care coordination program manager. Smith graduated from IUPUI with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from Indiana University.

About Damien Center:

Damien Center is Indiana’s oldest and largest AIDS service organization and leads the effort to prevent the spread of HIV. The Center opened in 1987 and offers a one-stop-shop model of care that includes preventive, supportive, and medical services that empowers people in Central Indiana affected by HIV/AIDS to move forward each day with dignity so they may live abundant and productive lives. Damien Center believes passionately in the dignity and worth of every person who seeks their services and strives to be a safe and welcoming place so that no barriers separate people from the services they need to prolong and enhance their lives. For more information visit: <http://www.damien.org> or follow them on Twitter at @DamienCenter or like them on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/thedamiencenter/>
